VOL. 98 No. 10 MONTHLY

OCTOBER 2016

AT IT...ONCE AGAIN

September always marks the start-up of the “other church year.” The regular one begins in late November or early December with the First Sunday in Advent. But I always feel like the week of Labor Day marks a new beginning, as well. Because that’s when Youth Catechesis begins. There’s a new crop of 6th graders (or YCat I catechumens—some start in 5th or even 4th grade if they’re ready and hungry for it). YCat II fires up again, as the 7th and 8th grade catechumens begin or resume their “deep dive” into the teachings of Scripture. It’s an exciting time. Especially for those of us who get to teach those classes.

And I do. I love it. There’s something invigorating about being annually reminded of the profundities of Scripture so well distilled in Luther’s Small Catechism. And for a guy who’s formally been dealing with theology at a level more advanced than YCat I and II since 1985, that’s saying a lot!

Far from being some perfunctory exercise in acculturating little Lutherans to the way we do things, the called staff—myself, Pr. Kerns, Deaconess—view teaching the Catechism as serious delivery of the goods; rolling out the teachings of Scripture that every Christian must know and that every Christian must never cease to know; giving the “tools” for living the Faith.

What should be the basis of all my belief regarding God, His will, and His salvation? The Bible. “All Scripture is breathed out by God and is profitable for teaching (some of us learned “doctrine”), reproof, correction, training in righteousness” (1 Tim. 3:16). And what does God expect of me in that book? Where do I find that? In the 10 Commandments. Boom. And so the Catechism begins. “You shall have no other gods.” “What does this mean?” “We should fear, love, and trust in God above all things.” And I’m skewered. Because I haven’t. And the march through the Commandments begins. One skewering after another. No. I haven’t done what I can to “help [my neighbor] improve and protect his possessions and income” (by the way, you can remember that phrase is like this: HIPPI—Help [him] Improve and Protect his Possessions and Income).

But the Lord not only kills me with His Law. He makes me alive through His Gospel. For it is He who has “given me my body and soul...my reason and all my senses. AND STILL (even though I’m a damnable sinner) TAKES CARE OF THEM!” Not only did He do that. He redeemed me from my sinful, willful, wayward use of them “not with silver or gold, but with His holy precious blood and His innocent suffering and death.” But even that didn’t totally fix my problem. Because Jesus meant nothing to me. I certainly wasn’t born with knowledge of Him. I was a sinner. And I was born distrusting, mistrusting, and hating God. No, instead He “called me by the Gospel, enlightened me with His gifts, etc.”

Which means I have a gracious Father in heaven, who even asks me to pray to Him. And not just like a wimp, but “with all boldness and confidence.” He even gives me the words to use—words that become more precious each time I say them. Because in them He gives Himself to me as a Savior God who “rescues me from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation.” And when my final hour comes He promises to “graciously to take me from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven,” which is what I mean when I pray, “Deliver us from evil.”

The Catechism even teaches me where I can find this God. He’s not a shape-shifter who needs to be caught and pinned to the ground. Instead, He comes to me within His holy Church.

- Think of Baptism. It “isn’t just plain water, but it is the water included in God’s command...” and “it works forgiveness of sins, rescues from death and the devil, and gives eternal salvation to all who believe this.” And then it works the faith it demands, because it’s “the renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom He poured out on us generously.”
- Don’t forget Confession, either. There God for the sake of Jesus promises to “absolve those who repent and want to do better.” That absolution is “just as valid and certain, even in heaven, as if Christ our dear Lord dealt with us Himself.”
- And then there’s the Supper, Christ’s “true body and blood” for me “to eat and to drink.” To what end? For the whole kahuna, that is, “for forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation....For where there is forgiveness of sins, there is also life and salvation.” And I don’t even have to be “worthy” in the way I think I need to be, i.e., by having completely won the victory over sin in myself. Why? Because it’s for the forgiveness of sins, my sins. And it requires only trust in those words—the trust that I don’t even have to muster up, but that the Lord gave me in my Baptism.

This is why the start-up of the “other church year” is so exciting. We get to teach these things to another group of the Lord’s redeemed. And we ourselves get the chance, once again, to be minded of the things we dare never forget. Because they are our life and salvation. The most basic, most profound teachings of Scripture.

The approval process is initiated by the organization contacting (one of) the pastor(s) or the chairman of the Board of Elders.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE CARING MISSION YEARLY REPORT FOR 2016

Our Lutheran World Relief (LWR) projects are completed for this year. We are happy to report we have 49 Personal Health Kits, 60 School Kits, 15 lbs. of soap and 20 quilts to send this year to LWR. A special thanks to Marge Gehrt and Marcia Wade who made all 60 beautiful school backpack bags for the School Kits. Another special thank you for Barb Porter for all her time in making the quilts this year.

These projects will be taken to LWR pick-up truck at Christ Lutheran Church on October 7, which takes the LWR projects to their warehouse in Baltimore, MD. From there, the quilts and kits are shipped to different countries where they are needed most. Our thanks to all St. John's members and all the ladies who worked or donated to make this a success. Again, these ladies have taken St. Paul's words, "Do not grow weary of doing good" to heart.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE NEWS

We are still collecting Best Choice labels. This year we had 2000 and this netted us $90.00. It was used towards the purchase of replacement ribbons in the hymnals. We are on our way to reach this goal again this year.

Email Prayer Chain

It's not too late to sign up for the email prayer chain. This is a wonderful way that every member of our congregation can pray for those who are in need. The only time it takes is for you to open your email. So, watch the newsletter, a new prayer chain is in the works. It will be email and everyone with email may participate. All prayers requested will be sent out blind copy so your email address will be safe. Only the coordinator will have access to it. We hope to get this up and running by fall. All you need to do is send an email to StJohnPrayer@aol.com and indicate you would like to be added. Leave your name along with your email address. You will get a confirmation email that your request was received.

LWML Sunday is October 9. We will have the mites boxes available at the back of the church and in Luther Hall during the wonderful breakfast you get to enjoy. You don't have to bring anything. So come eat with us and see our displays of the items that we send to LWR.

THANK YOU'S

THANK YOU! Those two words seem woefully lacking as a comprehensive and complete expression of appreciation for everything that occurred during the Divine Service and Dinner in recognition of my 18+ years as the Visitation Pastor of St. John's. Especially, Pr. Bruss and Pr. Kerns, Deaconess Linda, Board of Elders, Church Council, and everyone involved in the dinner, preparing the food, serving and cleaning up. I don't know the names of all but those who should be named know who they are and are truly appreciated.

The love of the members of this portion of the Body of Christ is personally evident through personal well wishes, cards, gifts, and especially the tremendous support given through your monetary gifts to the Bitter Endowment at Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne. The proceeds of the endowment will help to reduce the financial cost of individuals aspiring to become pastors in the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. If a student is a member of St. John's they will be the first to receive aid from the endowment. May the Lord bless all the members of St. John's for you kind expressions of love and support for me and for the rest of the Staff of St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church.

Pastor Glenn Ray Bitter

We would like to sincerely thank all who contributed to the Bargain & Bake Sale in any way by brining for sale for the bargain and baked items, those who helped with the sale and those who came to shop.

We will be able to make a contribution to the Paid In Full Campaign. We were also able to send useful, unsold items to Doorstep. St. John's Women's League gave $2,000.00 to the Paid in Full Campaign to be applied to the principal of the loan. Without the efforts of the members of this congregation and the lady named in paragraph below this would not have been possible so we THANK YOU! and we Thank God for you all.

We want to especially acknowledge Mrs. Jacqueline McBroom of Centennial, CO. Mrs. McBroom, a friend of John and Darlene Carr, heard of the million dollar building debt and sent many valuable collectible items for the Bargain Sale. We thank her for her generosity.

St. John's Women's League

This past week, I once again read through the lovely cards we received at my installation. They are so kind and thoughtful. Sadly, I still cannot place faces with all the names. This is my fault. Each week however, I make a few connections and put 2 and 2 together. Thank you for your patience. One card in particular (from Bill and Mary Roever) encouraged me to check out "Kansas' open spaces and beautiful Flint Hills." Well, Bill and Mary, we did. You were quite right. I have never seen such a beautiful landscape like that. Looking out makes me think the earth is flat. Wow. And to Marcia Wade, thank you for your card informing me that the State Flower for Kansas is the Sunflower. I had no idea. With the amount I see driving, I could have sworn the State Flower for Kansas was an orange and white construction cone.

THE THREE USES OF GOD'S LAW TO ENHANCE OUR LIVES

Pastor Goetz will be offering a two-session Bible Class on the topic "The Three Uses of God's Law to Enhance Our Lives." It will be held in the church nave between services on Sunday, October 30, and Sunday, November 6. This class should be quite useful in light of all that is happening around us.

For example, our member, Dr. Douglas Jones, has noted the following:

Occam's Razor suggests that when numerous events are occurring simultaneously, there is frequently a single cause. Our nation is currently experiencing numerous serious epidemics: depression, suicide, drug addiction, compulsive eating, sexual addiction and codependency to name a few. These are merely symptoms of a common underlying disorder. One way of describing this is "addictive thinking."

All of this points to the fact that we are born in sin and thus have something missing in our life. This problem has been described as having a hole in the soul. The items in Dr. Jones's paragraph give examples of some ways people try to fill the hole in the soul and thereby stop the pain and discomfort which may bother us at times in various physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual ways. Studying the three uses of the God's Law can help us learn to recognize, understand, and deal with this hole in the soul in useful ways. Our adults and youth are invited to attend.

INTERESTED IN BECOMING A VOTING MEMBER?

The new constitution of our congregation defines "voting member" as a communicant member who has reached the age of 18 years and been received as a voting member upon application for such privilege upon approval of the voters of the assembly. This means that, unlike in the past, communicant women age 18 and above are eligible to join the voters assembly. We encourage all eligible St. John's members to join the voters assembly. You can contact the office to get instructions on how you can become a voter.

Sunday school is one important tool for parents to nurture the faith given to your children in Baptism. Don't let your children miss out on this opportunity to grow spiritually and to get the life-giving Word into their ears, in their hearts, and on their lips. Parents, be an example for your children by attending Bible class while the children are in Sunday school.

THE MISSION OF THE CHURCH

[Jesus said] “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.”

Matthew 28:19–20a So that we may obtain faith in Christ, God instituted the ministry of teaching the gospel and administering the sacraments. Through the gospel and sacraments, as through means, God gives the Holy Spirit who produces faith, where and when He wills, in those who hear the gospel. The Augsburg Confession, Article 5.
