VOL. 79 No. 2 MONTHLY

FEBRUARY 2015

SUPPORTING MISSIONS THROUGH THE LCMS OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL MISSION

On December 13-18, 2014 I was privileged to visit the Czech Republic along with the Rev. Dr. Albert Collver III (LCMS Director of Church Relations & Regional Operations), Pastor Tony Booker (Regional Director of LCMS Eurasia), Pastor James Krikava (Associate Regional Director of LCMS Eurasia), Deaconess Grace Rao (Director of LCMS Deaconess Ministry), Deaconess Dorothy Krans (Director of Recognized Service Organizations), and Mrs. Kay Kreklau (President, LWML International).

Though we spent a half day in Prague at the beginning and end of the trip, which included the Divine Service at St. Michael's Lutheran Church, most of the time was spent in the northeastern city of Český Těšín, on the Polish border. In fact, three of us stayed in a small hotel just across the Olse River in Poland, in the sister city of Cieszyn.

The purposes of the trip were twofold: to continue talks between the LCMS and the Silesian Evangelical Church of the Augsburg Confession (SECAC) and to lead a two day conference on the theology of mercy, both for the benefit of SECAC and its partner organization for mercy work, the Silesian Diakonia. My participation in the trip was an outgrowth of our congregation's support of Missionary Jim Krikava who is one of five network supported missionaries (NSMs) that our congregation has adopted over the last 15 years. We have known this more commonly as the Together in Mission program. I was largely an observer at the talks with SECAC and at the Mercy conference, but also participated in many informal conversations. I was originally invited to give a presentation on "Preaching Mercy" which I did prepare but didn't end up giving due to conference schedule adjustments.

The Silesian Evangelical Church of the Augsburg Confession is the largest (non-union) Lutheran Church in the Czech Republic. While its formal beginning dates from the early 20th century, her roots go back to the time of the Reformation. Though the LCMS isn't presently in altar and pulpit fellowship with the SECAC, the LCMS did sign a working agreement with the SECAC about four years ago.

This Silesian Lutheran Church is comprised of about 35 pastors and 21 congregations located in the northeastern Czech Republic in part of a larger region historically known as Silesia. Until World War I Silesia was the name for the territory located both in this northeastern part of the Czech Republic as well as in southwestern Poland. It was a very Lutheran area! In fact, still today, the overwhelming percentage of Lutherans in both Poland and the Czech Republic still live in this area formerly known as Silesia.

Earlier I mentioned a two day conference on "Mercy" which was also presented for employees of the Silesian Diakonia. This Silesian Diakonia is an amazing organization for mercy work, which is closely affiliated with the Silesian Lutheran Church and provides a full array of social services throughout Silesia. These services consist of 102 programs in 60 centers provided by 600 full time employees, 100 part time employees, and 115 volunteers. Orphanages, homeless shelters, and sheltered workshops are just a few examples of the types of services they provide for the benefit of 8,000 needy people. In Europe it is common to have such 'diakonias' or social service organizations that are affiliated with various church bodies (many of them Lutheran). These diakonias receive much of their funding from the government. (Continued on page 2)

It was both surprising to me as well as humbling to observe the depth of theological education of many of the pastors in SECAC. Almost all had four year university Bachelor degrees plus a seminary education. Some received their university education at the respected 14th century Charles University, in Prague. Several have studied at U.S. Lutheran seminaries. But it was also very interesting to note the differences between their theology and that which we confess as LCMS Lutherans. There is still much work to be done if we are to grow together into the fullness of our Lutheran identity.

So much more could be said about our time with these Lutherans of the Czech Republic! But I'd like to close by saying how much greater of an appreciation I gained for the dedicated hard work of the LCMS Office of International Mission (OIM). From the things I learned about funding and budgeting issues, to aspects of the strategic plan, to the uniqueness of each Lutheran church body in the world, to the OIM's critical relationship with LCMS diaconal work and our Recognized Service Organizations, the LCMS Office of International Mission works hard to advance the mission of our Triune God to all nations in a way that is fully integrated with everything else that our Synod does.

My hope is that more people of the LCMS will read and take to heart the wealth of information regarding international missions that is communicated through the Lutheran Witness, the Reporter, and the LCMS website with its various blogs. And my prayer is that, as this understanding increases, by the grace of God the people of the LCMS will work increasingly closer together to advance the one mission of the Triune God—that all would be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth.

DOORSTEP NEWS

The month of February brings cold weather and hot soup and chili! Doorstep's major fundraiser, Operation Soup Line, is in its 12th year and will take place on Wednesday, February 25 at the Expo Centre Ag Hall. At the request of many, evening dinner is being added to the normal lunch time. Celebrity servers, entertainment, and a theme basket auction will be during lunch and dinner. Carryout is available for lunch and dinner; however, delivery on orders of 10 or more is available during lunch time only. Thank you to Jere Niehoff for making our theme basket.

Lunch: 11:00-1:30; Dinner: 4:30-7:00. Ticket price remains at $9 for adults and $5 for children 12 and under. This includes your choice of soup or chili, dessert, and a drink. The Soup Line is an important fundraiser as the funds are used to help our neighbors in need with rent and utility assistance throughout the year. With cuts this year in several grants used for client services, this event is even more important. Please bring your family and friends for lunch or dinner and support Doorstep!

Upcoming for March, St. John's annual assigned month, we will be one of five congregations responsible for providing a significant portion of food to Doorstep. Also, volunteers are needed to work in the clothing room at Doorstep on each of the 4 Wednesdays in the month. Shift times can be arranged between the hours of 8:30 and 2:00. Please call Chris Graversen at 235-9982 if you are able to volunteer. Your assistance with this outreach is greatly appreciated!

RUSSIA MISSIONS CHANGING TO INTERNATIONAL MISSIONS

In consultation with our Treasurer, the Board of Missions and Evangelism has decided to change the name of the Russia Missions fund to the International Missions fund. This is to reflect better the expanding list of missionaries and the countries that they serve (Russia, the Baltic states, the Czech Republic, etc.). This will also give the Board greater latitude in the future in selecting missionaries to support. Because of the one year lag in ordering offering envelopes, the 2015 envelopes will still say Russia Missions, even though the funds will be used more generally for International Missions. If there are questions or concerns about this, or if you would prefer that your gifts which have already been given would go only in support of Russia Missions, please contact Yvonne Berry in the church office.

LENTEN SERVICES AND MEALS

Lenten Services will be held at 12:15 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. on the Wednesdays listed below. There will be a light meal starting at 5:30 p.m. before each 7:00 p.m. service except Ash Wednesday, February 18. The flyer included with this newsletter also has service times for the Lenten sermon series, which does not include Ash Wednesday. February 18 February 25 March 4 March 11 March 18 March 25

THE MISSION OF THE CHURCH

[Jesus said] "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you."

Matthew 28:19-20a

So that we may obtain faith in Christ, God instituted the ministry of teaching the gospel and administering the sacraments. Through the gospel and sacraments, as through means, God gives the Holy Spirit who produces faith, where and when He wills, in those who hear the gospel.
